We have now almost run out of questions, so please submit more, if you have any, to wespenreproductions@gmail.com for future Q&A videos.

QUESTION: Mediums believe they can commune with the dead. Do you believe this is possible? If not, where do you believe they get their information from?

ANSWER: We can't say that it's impossible, but it requires the soul to still hover around in the astral, before being recycled, which is quite rare. Tom Campbell (check his channel) describes it best, we believe. We live in a simulation, and all the memories and data we gather as individuals and as a soul group is stored within the Matrix. If a medium asks for Uncle Bernie to appear, the medium gets in touch with the data/memories of Uncle Bernie, which will appear exactly as if it was him communicating. The System can even provide the best potentials when it comes to what Uncle Bernie would think about the future, Presidential Elections, or whatever it could be. The real Uncle Bernie is long gone and recycled again.

QUESTION: Do you believe in voting? Do we really have the power to choose who wins an election- even non-presidential ones?

ANSWER: No, we generally don't believe in voting. It doesn't matter whom we vote for; the Elite controls all political parties. Although, in smaller elections, the likelihood that all votes are counted and genuine candidates elected by their populations is probable. However, the higher up in the hierarchy you go, the less likely a genuine candidate, who truly represents his/her people, will find a seat in office, in our opinion. Just look at the research that has been done showing a clear and definite link, ancestrally, between ALL elected US Presidents, to have this confirmed. How could this just be a random chance that ALL presidents of the United States are of the same bloodline?

QUESTION: Is it possible that once this matrix is destroyed, it will restart itself again, therefore making it an eternal control system that will always exist as long as there's willing participants?

ANSWER: It depends whether the AIF will still be in charge or not. If they are, and the human soul group in general is still "asleep," En.ki and his team of scientists could easily re-terraform the Earth again—they've done that already a few times. If the entire Matrix would be destroyed and the AIF would still have free reign, they could rebuild that, too. Then, of course, if the Matrix was destroyed by the Queen/the Orions, and the AIF were captured, that would be the end of it.

QUESTION: Hi Wes/Ariel, I don't understand the concepts of ARTIFICIAL SOUL & TWIN FLAMES, could you explain to me about this in simple?

ANSWER: We can't answer this question as it is one we have ourselves. We really aren't sure what twin flames are so, at this time, we can't make the connection to either the artificial soul or the original divine soul.

QUESTION: My question to you comes from a very informative comment you made Wes from Video 91: Q&A Session #2

In the quotation marks, I copied and pasted the comment you made about an Energy Harvester (see below). When you referred to an energy harvester it sounded a lot like what is termed in the Narcissist Abuse community as "Narcissist Supply." Am I correct?

Quote: "Now translate that to someone who is an energy harvester. What would be most lucrative--positive or negative emotions? Positive emotions would be more potent, so that's what they want from us. Therefore, when we are positive and upbeat, they traumatize us and steal the positive emotions. What happens to us? We get depressed and apathetic (negative emotions) because we're robbed of the positive ones. But they can't leave us like that because then there's nothing more to harvest, so they start love-bombing us to get us in a good mood again, and the cycle starts all over." End quote.

ANSWER: Yes, you are correct—as above, so below. The narcissists among us are just dramatizing the mindset of the gods. As Carlos Castaneda said, "They gave us their mind!" (artificial soul). However, remember that these leeches of human soul energy also provoke the "negative" emotions, as well. It depends on the harvester (to use your term) as to what frequency of energy they are trying to consume. Ultimately, they feed from both.

QUESTION: Did you rebuke suicide only for reasons of being an unpeaceful, immoral (family & society) or fearful (low frequency) way to die? I wonder if suicidal souls will be rejected by Orion or stopped by the AIF from exiting the grid or recycled immediately without consent?!

ANSWER: Mainly, we would basically stop ourselves. We don't know whether suicide souls would be rejected by Orion or not, but first, we stop our soul progress while living on Earth, in an environment where advanced souls can gain a lot of useful experience, despite the hardships. Committing suicide proves that the soul is much less mature to become a creator god in the KHAA. Can such soul be relied upon as an effective creator god, if he/she gives up at the end of a cycle? Second: as mentioned in earlier videos, it's more often than not a fear-based decision to commit suicide, which also indicates that the person still has attachments to this world—"negative" attachments, which could very well prevent the soul from exiting.

QUESTION: The Rig Veda one of the oldest existent texts was composed by the cognitions of a small group of rishis or seers. 10 families of rishis account for 95% of the verses in the 10 books of the Rig Veda. Do you know anything about these Rishis? Are they part of the AIF or are they benevolent beings?

ANSWER: This is a quote from the Wes Penre Papers (WPP), Level 5: "The Hindu gods also had their scribes, of course, and in the Vedic texts they are called

Rishis, and sometimes Sages, although we will make more of a distinction between the two later on. For now, I will use both terms interchangeably. Interestingly enough, it says in the Vedic texts that the Rishis were “fishlike beings,” meaning they were aquatic in nature. Where have we heard that before? We discussed the extraterrestrial aquatic tribe to quite some extent in Level IV, as the reader may recall, originating from Sirius. If we go with the Vedic version, I suggest that the scribes were actually extraterrestrials. It’s also easy to see where they had their loyalty, as they are “regarded in the Vedas as the patriarchs of the Vedic religion.”

QUESTION: You mentioned that Thoth is always reincarnating as a significant figure in history. I'm wondering how you can be sure it is always Thoth? Also, related to this, in terms of the AIF, is it a force just governed by Enki, Thoth and Lucifer (a father and 2 sons). Are there no other significant players?

ANSWER: We don’t believe ALL significant figures in history is/was Thoth. What seems to be the case, however, is that when major breakthroughs happened in our past, whether they were technological or spiritual in nature, Thoth, on a mission by En.ki, had a finger in it. He either incarnated himself and spread the message, or his body was in stasis in the Halls of Amenti, and he appeared to selected humans as an archangel or non-celestial being to assist this selected person. Are there other significant players? Yes, there are nine gods mentioned in the Emerald Tablets of Thoth, and they all have bodies in stasis in the Halls of Amenti. We know of Ereshkigal and Isis. The other ones are unknown to us.

QUESTION: What is the true purpose of Sleep? Did humans sleep before the AIF arrived?

ANSWER: Sleep is rejuvenation, so we can regain energy in this Matrix. As above, so below: Thoth, after each incarnation, returns to his body in stasis to rejuvenate before he incarnates again. Thoth himself says he sometimes rejuvenates for a thousand years. We don't know if the Primordial human needed to sleep or not.

QUESTION: Can you explain nano-bots in more detail? How big are they? What are they made of? Do they affect our DNA? and who is doing this? And how can they get them into the food supply (aside from what comes in through Chem-trails)?

ANSWER: The nanobots are of nano-size, i.e. they are quantum size. They are made with "quantum-technology," given to human scientists by the Overlords, so we can use them for THEIR purpose. Those of us, who don't have access to this technology, and are not highly educated in nano-technology, will not understand the technology of the gods—this technology was given to the brightest scientists in the world, who are smart enough to learn and understand it. Yes, they affect our DNA—actually, they are meant to replace our DNA entirely with artificial DNA, unrelated to the DNA of the Universe. Chemtrails are a big part of it. From there, of course, they get into the food that is growing, as well. But they also have the means to insert bots into medicine and food directly. Again, that's technology that goes way over the average human's head.

QUESTION: You mentioned that there are other alien groups here on the planet. You mentioned that they are not all in agreement with the AIF. Is there actually an "alliance" (an alien force for good) that is actually planning to bring down the AIF (or at least its earthly minions) as mentioned by other You-Tubers? I somehow find it hard to believe that, if there are good Alien forces out there, they can have an impact. The AIF seems way too powerful and smart.

ANSWER: There are a few beings on the planet that are not from here, but they are mainly here as observers—they don't form any alliances to help breaking down the System. They are very strict with not interfering with freewill or break the rules of this Experiment. We don't believe there are any alliances of "good" beings here on this planet, "opposing" the Alien Invader Force (AIF).

QUESTION: Does this earth (simulated) will come to an End a.k.a reset?

ANSWER: We don't see that it will be a reset, such as when someone "pushes a button" type of reset, where everything starts from the beginning again. But yes, if we look back in history, it goes in cycles, where civilizations rise and fall, and then a similar pattern repeats itself. We would say that Thoth has been the builder of civilizations, coming here to educate humankind when the AIF sees it appropriate to build new civilizations. On the contrary, they are also the destroyers of civilizations when it fits their Agenda.

QUESTION: Is Enki/Lucifer the main leader of AIF?

ANSWER: Yes and no. There are two MAIN factions of the AIF—one faction is run by En.ki (the spiritual faction, which is also the civilization builder) and Marduk's faction, which is all about negative and dictatorial control (including the Singularity).

QUESTION: If En.ki is a master geneticist, so good as his mother the Queen of the Stars, why he can't achieve so good results as her, can't create anything from the scratch and only can degrade something existent?

ANSWER: Because at one point, he and the rest of the AIF were stripped off their creator god abilities by the Orion Council, which put them in a position where they can only create through us or copy and build on something that is already created. Archons come to mind, doesn't it?

QUESTION: I remember Michael Tsarion has talked about the matriarch and patriarch, the reason we put women under us and men gets better treatment rewards than women is because last world age or something that women was on top controlling and ruling, and they treated men like dirt so that's why this time around we got 'em back? What's going on here, what do you think he meant???

ANSWER: Although there are certainly destructive and oppressive women, and have been throughout history, just like men, we don't see Tsarion's theory being valid. Women have been suppressed because this is En.ki's Universe, where he is the MALE God. He doesn't think very highly of females, and neither does Marduk. The reason is because they have a horn on the side of the Mother Goddess—the Queen. The real Universe (the KHAA) is feminine, while En.ki has made his own 4% universe masculine and patriarchal. Tsarion's suggestion seems like propaganda to strengthen the division and discord between males and females.

QUESTION: Ever since my spiritual awakening journey, which happened around 2011, I have been seeing certain number sequences. The first one that stood out was 11:11... There many interpretations online that made me give up on trying to figure out what they specifically mean, but that doesn't mean I stopped paying attention to them. Even when I don't really pay attention to them, they just show up anywhere. I believe I am not the only one who has been having this kind of experience. What is it really? Spiritual awakening trigger? A glitch in the matrix? A number for activating some parts of the DNA? Angel numbers? Sign of being a starseed? A sign that the universe is trying to communicate to you?

ANSWER: From what we know, seeing numbers in sequence or repeated numbers is your strengthening connection to the Universe. So, your last question would be the correct answer. It can be seen as a sign to make you pay attention at that moment. Whatever you were talking about or thinking about immediately before or at that moment when you see these "signs" is important in some way. It could just be nothing more than a confirmation that you are on the right track with your thinking. The numbers themselves don't represent messages as much as you are noticing the pattern at a specific moment. THAT is the message – "pay attention". DNA activations and the term "starseed" are deceptions of EVENT-type narratives and New Age (new religion) programming.

QUESTION: There has been a lot of people going to the other side/beyond the veil and see the tunnel of light but i can't find any that have mentioned seeing the grid going to the light or coming back to earth when 'given a second chance'. some people are pulled or drawn to the light and it sounds like they had no choice, which we know is a soul trap, (not because they are religious, some are atheists). when 'our time comes', what if we see no grid only the light, do we head towards the light and fight to turn them down no matter how much they try to persuade us to stay, then have to be reincarnated? also if we do turn them down to try and find the grid would it just appear or could we be trapped like lost souls in the between life area? i know we have to overcome fear on this earth plain so we do not get duped into the reincarnation cycle, soul traps or fear mongering they might do to us, i.e the illusion of being sent to hell like some people have even thou they may not have believed in it.

ANSWER: Those who've seen the tunnel of light were not outside the veil/Grid. They were still inside the Matrix, in the astral plane. There are people who have seen the Grid under these circumstances, but the most common thing is that they've been drawn towards the light because that's what "sticks out" and get people's attention. This tunnel also emanates a lot of love, which is harvested from human souls, and it's very attractive to the soul. Attention goes where energy flows, as it were. Once a person enters the tunnel after death, they WILL be recycled—they have no say about it. In a near death experience, however, the person is still connected to the body via the silver cord, which some can perceive, while others can't. Therefore, if the Afterlife guardians think a soul should return to their body, they can send them back. If the body is still functioning enough to be "repaired" by the doctors, the soul is usually sent back.

QUESTION: I would imagine learning to practice astral projecting would help when we leave this earth plain also overcoming fear are essential tools to have. with regards to astral projecting is it possible to go to the gates of the orion court to meet our orion brethren or truly find out what it is really like once we leave the grid or is there an illusion, simulation or soul traps in the astral realm preventing the truth to be revealed to us?

ANSWER: Yes, we suspect that astral travel can help in learning to overcome our fears. Once we are made aware of our true nature, we will have better clarity about who we really are and the false illusion of this matrix. Once this clarity is gained, in our opinion, it can help us have a better understanding of what our priorities should be going forward. No, it would not be possible to travel beyond this matrix, to the Orion court or elsewhere, during astral travel while we are still attached to this physical body (with the silver cord) within the boundary of the Grid. Yes, there can be many illusions in the astral realm. This is the reason why the more we can learn about ourselves the better prepared we will be and the less likely we will be manipulated by any false illusions or projections. Even when the path to exit isn't marked, we can still find it by knowing what to avoid.
