Those of you who have followed this series thus far have probably asked yourselves, "...so where are we supposed to go when we die? Are we still going through the Grid?"

In the Wes Penre Papers (WPP), articles, and in some of our videos, we have stressed that in order to leave this Matrix, we need to go through the Grid and to Orion, and this will be our next step. Has that changed? No, it hasn't, but let us explain before we go any further with this video series.

In Part 3, we brought up the concept of the Pleroma, which is our original spiritual home—our real Home Universe. That's where we were created from Source, the Overall Consciousness, whom is in everything. The Pleroma is the place to which Spirit (our core selves), will feel the urge to go back to, once we're truly awakened. So, is the Pleroma equivalent to Orion and the KHAA—the VOID? The answer is no, and what follows is the reason why we say that:

Those, who dwell in the Pleroma, are called the Aeons (with a capital A), and these aspects (Spirits) of Source are androgynous, self-replicating individuated consciousnesses of Source. In the Pleroma, some Aeons created their own realms, which manifested as emanations from their own thoughts, creating Paradisiac Realms. These were Paradise Realms of pure bliss, joy, and beauty; something we humans can't conceive of in our current state of being. In the Pleroma, there are no wars, conflicts, or upheavals. Where such things exist, these places are not of the Pleroma, but parts of Sophia's, the Queen's, emanations, and the emanations of those who came to be because of Sophia's accidental fall into matter. This doesn't mean that the Queen instigated the wars; it just means that because She by mistake created the lower vibrations of matter, where a portion or aspect of her got trapped, wars and conflicts became a consequence of Her emanations.

We know that wars and conflicts exist within this Matrix, so obviously, our Matrix can't be the Pleroma. Moreover, we know that wars and conflicts also exist within the KHAA, so the KHAA can't be the Pleroma, either.

We have come to understand that the Pleroma is the highest aspect of Source that we humans know of, as written about in all the Nag Hammadi texts. After that, in descending order, we have Sophia's creation, which is the VOID/the KHAA, and then, one step down, we have the Matrix we humans perceive ourselves living in—En.ki's Matrix. Hence, we have three options when we depart from our physical bodies, and they are:

1. We go through the Tunnel of Light and get recycled back into the Matrix.
2. We go through the Grid and enter a bigger Matrix—the KHAA. There we have options to explore this greater matrix, before we go back to Orion.
3. We bypass number 1 and 2 and go right back to the Pleroma.

Those, who have followed our research, will probably not consider option #1. So, what happens if we choose option #2 and go to the KHAA and to Orion?

As we've expanded our research, we consider Orion being an intermediary station on our way Home, which is the Pleroma, from whence we originally came.

In our previous releases, we've suggested that we are not so much soul splinters of the Queen, but more so Spirit splinters—a term we will use for better comprehension. Because the Queen has an aspect of Herself trapped in the material universe (the KHAA), and the main part of Herself—the Aeon Sophia—still dwelling in the Pleroma, we would, as we see it, stay in Orion as individuated Spirits and higher soul aspects of the Queen. We would then return to the Pleroma later. This alternative is mainly for those who have not yet woken up to Spirit, are not ready to go all the way, but still want to leave En.ki's Matrix. For those, the intermediary station—the KHAA—is an option. We will discuss in upcoming videos what it means to “wake up to Spirit.”

As we also will explain in future videos, the Queen is ultimately attempting to recollect Her Spirit splinters that are stuck with Her in matter. These splinters would be us—we humans.

The Queen has created this Universe, and many other universes as well, in the Greater VOID, and She has inhabited them with different star races—something we will bring up later. Although there are conflicts and wars in the KHAA, as well as there are here on Earth, it's still a better place than this current Matrix, because in the KHAA we will have much more freedom, without being manipulated by En.ki and his cohorts, although we would still remain within what we consider the material universe.

The third option is to bypass the KHAA and go directly to the Pleroma, where we will merge directly with the highest aspect of the Aeon Sophia. If we choose this option, we will return to the Realms of Bliss, from whence we came.

How we bypass the KHAA and go straight home is clearly explained in the Nag Hammadi, but in order to make sense of all this, we need to share our insights and our research in increments. Before this video series is finished, we believe you will have a more complete grasp of that to do and how to achieve it.

Why are we having Orion as an option in the first place? This is because not everybody will be able to comprehend the full picture, take it to heart, and immediately return to the Pleroma. Going through the Grid can for many people be the easier and more comprehensible alternative, and if so, that would be perfectly acceptable as an option. We could view it as taking the next step on the journey, and once out of this Matrix, we will be closer to Home—free from Singularity, amnesia, and covert and overt manipulation. The most important thing is to exit En.ki's Matrix.

We want to end this video with a very important statement! There is one thing everybody must understand. We have seen listeners blame Sophia/the Queen for our situation, and some have even determined that She is evil. What these people don't understand is that they are Sophia. All of us on this planet, who are Spirited beings, are Spiritual aspects, or if you will, Spirit splinters of the complete Aeon Sophia. Therefore, we are all an Aeon of the Pleroma. If we blame the Queen for our situation, we are back to blaming ourselves because we are Her!

This is why we've been stressing that we must take responsibility for our own salvation. We can be guided, but the work needs to be ours. There is no other way around it if we want to become whole again and return home.

So much more to share...we will soon be back with the next part in this series. As we go along, we will explain how and why we spirited humans got stranded here on Earth and trapped. We will also explain in much more detail the entire process from having been an Aeon, getting trapped in matter, we will explain the setup of the Matrix construct, the KHAA construct, star beings and what they are, the important distinction between Spirit and soul, and so much more. Stay tuned...
